

Opomba:

A. Poševnica (/) označuje dodatno možnost.

Na primer:

He is washing the car / his car pomeni, da sta pravilni obe povedi, in sicer He is washing the car in He is washing his car. Kjer je bilo smiselno, smo dodali več možnih rešitev, vendar to ne pomeni, da so pravilni samo dani odgovori. Marsikje nismo izčrpali vseh možnosti, zato se naj učenci o svojih rešitvah posvetujejo z učiteljem.

B. Oklepaj () označuje tiste besede, ki jih lahko izpustimo.

Na primer:

She is riding (a horse) pomeni, da je pravilno She is riding in She is riding a horse.

Pri vajah, ki zahtevajo prosto dopolnjevanje, smo lahko dodali samo predloge rešitev, ki se seveda lahko močno razlikujejo od učenčevih.

Pri tistih vajah, kjer učenci izražajo svoje lastne izkušnje, rešitev seveda nismo mogli navesti.

Exercise 8 (str. 72)

- Growing wheat for bread is a year-long process, so the first part of the farmer's job starts in August when the fields are ploughed after the last harvest.
- The wheat seed is then sown with a machine called a "corn drill". It is attached to the back of the tractor. With the help of this machine the farmer can plant many seeds at the same time.
- When the wheat has grown enough it is harvested. The farmer uses a huge machine called a "combine harvester". The combine harvester chops the wheat off and it is then sucked through to a rotating drum which separates the chaff (the straw bits) from the wheat. The wheat is placed into a large tank in the combine harvester and the straw is either blown back onto the field to be ploughed back in or else it is rolled up into huge round straw bales which are sold for animal bedding or food.
- Then the wheat is cleaned, dried and stored in silos.

- Then the bread dough is put onto bread boards to "rest" for 6-8 minutes.
- The bread dough is moulded into various shapes (e.g. little round balls for bread buns).
- The dough has to "rest" again and the baker places it into a warm, moist container called a "prover". It will stay in the prover for about 50 minutes.
- Once the dough has risen, it then travels through the oven for about 20-25 minutes. 6,000 large or 8,000 small loaves are baked per hour. At this point, the smell in the bakery is delicious!
- When it is taken out of the oven it is placed on racks to cool. When it is cool enough, some bread is sliced, packed, loaded onto lorries and delivered to the shops where it is sold to us!
- That's it! That's how bread is made!

Cliff-top Monasteries of Metéora

Twenty-four gigantic rocks rise from the ground on the plain of Thessaly in northern Greece. The area of Metéora is an amazing marvel of nature, now known as "the rocky forest of Greece". It was originally settled by monks who lived in caves within the rocks during the 11th century. But as the times became more unsure because of numerous wars, they climbed higher and higher up the rock face until they were living on the inaccessible peaks. They brought material and people up with ladders and baskets and built the first monasteries. Out of the 24 monasteries that grew up between the 13th and 16th centuries only six are still inhabited.

Phileas Fogg won the bet!

Exercise 4c (str. 200); (predlog resitve)

We left our house in our car. We drove to the nearest village where we caught a bus to Gorizia. There we rented a scooter and arrived in Trieste where we hitchiked a lorry to Genova. In Genova we called a taxi which took us to Marseille. From there we went by plane to Lisbon from where we had a pleasant voyage on a cruise ship to Rio de Janeiro. A helicopter took us to Buenos Aires and from there we walked to Parana. This was the best adventure in our lives.

Exercise 5a (str. 202)

On 4 January, 1952, two young men jumped on an old motor-bike and left Buenos Aires for – South America! There was the whole continent lying ahead!

The journey carried them across vast pampas of Argentina. Their first stopover was in Miramar, where Ernesto visited his girlfriend. After a few days they moved on, heading towards Chile. They travelled through Patagonia, and after 1,809 kilometres on the way, they arrived in Piedra del Aquila, Argentina. Farmers and inn-keepers gave them a place to sleep during their nights on the road.

On 31 January, they got to San Mart“n de los Andes, Argentina, 40 kilometres from the Chilean border. From there, they left for Lake Frias where they took a ferry across the border with Chile. Now they had to travel across the Andes. There was a lot of snow and they fell off their motorbike several times. At times, their old motorbike broke down and they had to push it across high mountain passes. On 18 February, they arrived in Temuco, Chile. They took their motorcycle to a mechanic. In the evening they went to a dance where they got involved in a fight. So, they left Temuco in a hurry and drove to Los Angeles, Chile. On their way to Valparaiso they crashed the motorbike. So, from here on they had to travel either on foot or hitch-hike. They headed north, deeper and deeper into the Andes, travelling through the Atacama Desert, Chile. Luckily, people gladly gave them lifts in their vehicles.

They arrived in Peru in a lorry. After 6,932 kilometres on the road, they came to the heart of South America – Cuzco. From there they climbed to the ancient Inca city of Machu Picchu. On 12 May, they came to Lima. After two weeks they left for San Pablo, a leper colony on the banks of the Amazon, deep in the Peruvian rainforest. They travelled to San Pablo by ship. The journey lasted five days. They stayed at the leper colony for a month, treating lepers. They left the leper colony on a self-made raft, travelling to Leticia, Colombia. They passed through Columbia, ending up in Caracas, Venezuela. On 26 July 1952, the two friends got to the airport in Caracas. They had made a journey of 12,425 kilometres. Ernesto took a plane and flew to Cuba.
